

Republican Ticket.

FOR SHERIFF.
Clayton L. Woodward.

FOR CIRCUIT CLERK.
Septimus T. Stevens.

The hardest wish we have for the most delinquent of delinquent subscribers is that he might have to perambulate over the plank walks of Hartford as our citizens of necessity must do.

Ed. P. Crown, with his brother, Rev. Jno. M. Crowe, has established the Methodist Advocate at Skelton, Mo. Ed. is a brainy young fellow, and is achieving well-merited success in his new field.

"The eighth and greatest wonder of the world," is what the World's Fair buildings and grounds, even in their present incomplete condition, are pronounced by Major Woods, Executive Commissioner of the Connecticut World's Fair Board.

HENRY P. CHEATHAM, the colored Representative from North Carolina and the only one in the House, in pleading for the appropriation for a negro exhibit at the World's Fair, made about the best five minute speech of the session. But, of course, the Democratic House declined to pass the appropriation.

An establishment has been incorporated in Ohio for the manufacture of buttons. If you hear anything about this in Democratic newspapers it will be coupled with the assertion that it is started for campaign purposes. But, as the incorporation fee in Ohio is a per cent. on the capital stock, it costs money to incorporate an enterprise, and is not done for fun.

A whole day of last week was consumed by the House trying to correct a Democratic speech which never made on the floor of the House, but lugged into record under the permission "to print." Even then it did not succeed in accomplishing the feat. The cost of the time consumed in this abortive proceeding was something more than $5,000. Inefficient stupidity, thy name is—Democracy!

The town trustees are about applying for a patent on the plank walks in certain parts of town. It is not certain to what member the honor of the invention is due, or whether it is the fruit of a great mental effort on the part of the whole board in regular session, but suffice it to say that it is to be known as the Combined Neck-breaker and Skin-skinner and will only be used in towns where the people are very forbearing like our people are, for such machines would be tolerated anywhere else in the whole world save Hartford.

As our faithful railroad wreck is added to the already long list. This time, however, it is close to home, and hence created greater excitement than those of a similar nature farther away. On Sunday morning a passenger train from Russellville and an excursion train from Owensboro collided near South Carrollton, literally mowing both trains, killing five passengers and wounding twenty-five others. The whole loss of life and property is due to the mistake in regard to when the change in the time table took effect and the rashness of the conductor on the excursion. He attempted, we learn, to run from Island to South Carrollton, a distance of nine miles, in seven minutes, when he was warned not to do it, and he knew the other train was dashing down in his direction. We understand that he pleaded for poison to end his life when he saw the fruit of his recklessness. It is estimated that $200,000 will not pay the expense of the company, necessitated in consequence of the wreck.

From the Herald's insinuations one would be led to believe that the quill-driver for that sheet is glad that the violators of law in Hartford have escaped without indictment. Such a feeling is fully in keeping with this abettor, defender, colleague and cohort of this disorderly element in our midst. Now, the truth is, and he knows it, that the Grand Jury was completely disgusted with the gross perjury of those complicated in the Blind Tiger business, and that to this is to be attributed the failure to make indictments and not that there is no violation of law. The editor of the Herald knows as well as anyone that those violations exist and they also know that did the law and order element of society know the minutiae of those violations, the offenders would be brought to justice. But so long as those violators and their henchmen swear lies, and are pandered to by a paper, that claims to be the only "reliable" paper in the county, who is surprised that indictments are not found and that they continue to break the law?

Amid all the wrangling discussions, over the political bombast just opening there steals now and then, over the mind of the average citizen of

THE TWO GREAT LEADERS OF REPUBLICANISM.

BENJAMIN HARRISON.

JAMES G. BLAINE.

The Minneapolis Convention is on, with these two the principal contestants, with a probability for a dark horse. As the matter stood yesterday the chances were rather in Harrison's favor, but nothing definite can now be determined.

Hartford, the thought that there are at least a few things at home that need attention as well as those far away. A town with all the advantages which our own loved Hartford possesses, intelligence, refinement, wealth, educational advantages would seem to merit, at least in a moderate degree, the conveniences common in a town of its size. But fate, or some lady, seems in this case, to have decided otherwise. The walks on certain streets are a disgrace to the town and an insult to our tax-payers. If there is no money to build them, better go in debt than not have them at all. Hartford is not bankrupt—she can and will pay her honest debts, but her people demand protection for life and limb when on the street, but this they can not have in some portions of town, owing to the terrible condition of the walks. They are absolutely dangerous in broad, open day, to say nothing of night. It will be remembered that not many weeks ago a young lady was crippled on the miserable walks while going to prayer-meeting; and the only wonder is that more people have not been crippled. In some places these walks have become so worthless and so treacherous that they have had to be thrown out of the way, and the citizens are compelled to take the ground for it, notwithstanding the rain and mud of the whole spring. When will it be remedied? We reckon the proper answer is. The good city dads only know.

OWENSBORO ITEMS.

June 6. No little excitement was created on yesterday by the wreck on the O. & N.E. R. near South Carrollton. A colored excursion train leaving Owensboro collided with an in-coming passenger and several lives were lost, as well as a number injured. A locomotive was sent out with physicians from this place at once, but no train could be secured till the arrival of the Falls of Hough from Russellville. It returned at 11 p. m., bearing not a jolly crowd of excursionists, but a train load of frightened people, thankful that so many escaped a horrible death. All of the colored population of the city, not aboard the train were gathered at the depot, anxiously waiting its arrival and the scene of tumult and lamenting then presented might be imagined a night in the "Reign of Terrors" though no blood-thirsty vengeance, or relentless DeForge blocked the way, yet the passing of the wagons in the moonlight bearing their over-silent passengers, might have been taken, in the surging crowd for the dreaded Tumbrels taking the victims of La Guillotine to the grave. After suspense was ended the crowd turned its foot-steps towards the City, no doubt many of them with a lasting impression of one Sunday's excursion.

The Commencement exercises of the Owensboro Female College, began to night. The exercises will be held in College Chapel. The annual address to the students was delivered by Dr. J. G. Bow, of Louisville, at the first Baptist Church last night. The City High School held its Commencement, as a Hall of sufficient size could not be secured. Thirty-two young ladies and gentlemen took their diplomas. The five ranking highest of the graduating class were: Misses Anna Delker, Nannie Terrill, Hilda Heilbron, Celia Gilliland and Oona Smith.

J. A. Rowe and wife, of Big Sandy Tenn., but formerly of Hartford, visited friends in Owensboro last week.

The Court is in session and no doubt some of the worthy "news dealers" who so delicately hinted at the dark doings of those in possession of the "spoils" are already sharpening their pencils for the wonderful tales of fraud they promised the public. Among those in attendance from Ohio county are Capt. Wood Tinsley and C. R. Campbell. Intense excitement characterizes the political feelings of the city now, and as a thunder-bolt, came the announcement of Mr. Blaine's resignation as Secretary of State. Even the ministers are sending up their petitions for deliberate action and a patriotic and wise choice, by the great assembly now convening. That Benjamin Harrison may be their choice is the wish of M. A.

BEAVER DAM.

June 7.—Mrs. Albert Murray Troutman, of Owensboro, visited her sister, Mrs. Buck Hudson, of this neighborhood, last week. While here she was visited by quite a number of her former students and friends. It will be remembered that she was a very popular teacher in the Liberty neighborhood nine years ago.

James Poyner, of this place, returned from Chicago, where he had been attending a school of pharmacy.

Republican Speaking.

Rev. E. M. McMillin, of Lebanon, Ky., will address the people of Breckinridge county at the Court House in Hardinsburg on Monday the 20th, inst., on the political issues of the day, from a Republican standpoint. Speaking to commence at the usual time for public speaking. Mr. McMillin is a gifted and eloquent speaker, let the public come out and hear him.

Resolutions of the Grand Jury.

WHEREAS, It has pleased Almighty God in His infinite wisdom to remove from earth, on Monday, May 30, 1892, the little daughter of our worthy Grand Jurymen of the previous term, J. M. Whitehouse; therefore be it Resolved, That the members of said Grand Jury have the greatest sympathy for the bereaved family and bow submissively to the will of God, who doeth all things right and commend them to Him for comfort in their sad bereavement.

Resolved, That these resolutions be published in the Hartford Herald and Republican and a copy be presented to the bereaved family.

Done by order of the Grand Jury June 2, 1892. E. H. COOPER, Com.

FORDSVILLE.

June 6.—Miss Maudie Rossion, of Louisville, has been visiting friends and relatives at this place.

Miss Olive Howard is visiting near Philipot.

Many friends await the return of Alva Jones from the Kentucky School of Medicine. I am glad to report that he has won the title of M. D.

Mrs. Alice Castled and W. H. Martin have just returned from Louisville where they have been to attend the funeral of their father.

Mr. Charles Wade and Miss Maggie Johnson were married at the residence of the bride's father, near town yesterday.

Another hotel is being erected at this place. Fordsville will once more do its general appearance.

The new railroad is being located and work will begin soon.

A sanctified lady gave a temperance lecture at Poplar Grove on the 1st. Owing to the inclemency of the weather the attendance was very small.

I will submit to the readers of the Republican a question which was proposed to me some time ago: If it was possible for a train to run at cannon-ball speed and a cannon being placed on it muzzle back is fired, what will become of the ball? If the muzzle is placed forward then what will become of it?

Hoping to see the opinion of many on the above and wishing the Republican success, I remain a silent friend.

Tax Notice!

Your taxes for year 1892 are now due and unpaid and as I have been delayed in the collection for more than 60 days by the Legislature, I will expect you to call on me or my deputies and settle at once. The short time that I will have to collect and meet the settlements with State and county will necessitate promptness on your part.

Collins-Klein,

Earl Collins, of Glenview, and Miss Lucy Klein, of this city, were married at the residence of the bride's mother, Mrs. Lucy Klein, at 7 o'clock Sunday morning. The wedding was a surprise, as the contracting parties are quite young. Mr. Collins is an industrious young man and his bride a pretty little maid of fifteen summers.
 May the young lives thus linked in youth grow into each other, and may their honeymoon never end.

Church Meeting.

The Church Meeting at the Baptist Church next Saturday evening will be a most important one, hence, every Baptist in town, who desires to be recognized as such, is most affectionately urged to attend this service.
 Important business matters will claim your attention. The Lord's Supper will be administered, which ordinance has been greatly neglected by many, notwithstanding, the rules of the Church most positively require the attendance of all the members at this institution of the Gospel, wherein we show our remembrance of the death and suffering of our Savior.
 Those who received baptism at our last meeting are especially requested to be present, that they may receive the hand of Church recognition.

Preaching by the pastor Sunday morning and evening. Subject:
 "Christian Union." Text—"Holy Father, keep through thine own name those whom thou hast given me, that they may be one, as we are," John 17:11. The unity of all God's children in one body, being the burden of our Savior's great intercessory prayer will be the doctrine discussed in both of the sermons next Sunday, and, therefore, all Christians of all denominations are most affectionately invited to attend.

J. S. COLEMAN, Pastor.
 June 10, '92.

CROMWELL.

June 6.—The Republican Club of Cromwell Precinct met at Schoolhouse, No. 25 last Saturday night at 8 o'clock. The Club was called to order by our County Committee man, C.
 S. Taylor. Minutes of last meeting were then read and adopted.

The next thing in order was the election of a permanent Secretary, which resulted in the selection of H.
 Boyce Taylor.

The Chairman then in a few chosen and pointed remarks, stated the object of the meeting. After which upon motion the body proceeded to the enrollment of members. J. M.
 Rogers was then called for and responded, showing that everything that could be done is being done now, for the American people, had origin in the Republican party, or in that party, which before there was a Republican party advocated the doctrine and tenets of the Republican party.
 John X. Taylor and Silas L. Stevens were called for and responded in short and appropriate speeches.

W. M. Stevens, being then called to the front, proceeded to give the reasons, (2) why he had left the party of his first love and former allegiance, and joined what is known as the 85 party movement.

Upon motion a Committee consisting of J. M. Rogers, E. L. Stevens, Jo. B. Rogers and Dr. F. G. Turner was appointed to draft a constitution and by-laws and declaration of principles for the club, and report at our next meeting.

Upon motion the chair appointed the following as a committee on program for next meeting: H. Boyce Taylor, E. E. Rogers and John X.
 Taylor. After a brief consultation the committee reported the following program: Herschel B. Taylor—History of the Republican party. Dr. F.
 G. Turner—The Tariff. Silas L.
 Stevens—Free Coinage of Silver.
 E. P. Neal—Objects and aim of Republicanism.

Upon motion the club adjourned to meet Saturday night, June 18th at 8 o'clock. C. S. TAYLOR, Ch'm'n.

H. BOYCE TAYLOR, Sec'y.

 ter's Institute will hold its next session with the Baptist church at Whites-ville, beginning on Monday evening after the 3rd Sunday in this month and continue through the three succeeding days. The third, being the last, will be devoted to a memorial service in memory of Rev. Joseph P. Ellis, recently deceased. In the discussion of this day, the self-denials, sacrifices and useful life of this great man of God will be suitably remembered and presented. The discussion of theological questions, during the two preceding days will be full of interest and instruction. All these meetings will be open to the public, and all are invited to attend.

TOWN TATTTLER.

To an observing mind it is only too plain that the Hartford boys are not "in it" when the College boys are around. If you have ever doubted this you have only to witness the week-long look on the faces of Hartford's fair maidens this week, and you will be convinced. Boys, they are mourning for those who are gone, for those who were but are not. If our home boys ever expect to get in their work, they must do it between now and September, for these rivals of yours will return at that time, and for another long ten months you'll have to play second fiddle. Boys, I'm for you, put in good time while they are gone.

Among the few things in which Hartford has made a total failure is the Park by the jail, but 'tis not a failure after all. I suppose, for as the old maxim says, "It is an ill wind that blows nobody good." If it does nothing else it furnishes a nice calf lot for our clever and good-looking jailor. But while it's very fine on the jailor's calves it's not so fine on our people, who have paid their money to support the Park, and who, these long hot days, would love to stroll into the beautiful shade, which, with proper management by this time would have greeted the meeting citizens in search of a cool place. It's now too late to plant trees this season, but fall will come on apace and later another spring, and in these seasons the long neglected tree planting in the Park should be attended to.

Halt! The term may seem harsh to unsuspecting ears, but to the more observing of our race, it will be perfectly apparent that the time has long past when such a thing might have been said with propriety and that such a declaration is at this time, not only necessary, but, as a matter of self-defence, is absolutely imperative.
 There is no way out of it, it is unavoidable. So sink or swim, live or die, survive or perish, we propose to put our foot down and say, Halt, and when we say it, we believe that our co-sufferers and threatened martyrs will agree with us in thus throwing off the yoke of oppression and declaring our independence. The thing is done, the die is cast, and we propose to be imposed on no longer. We will stand to the declaration. It is in the interest of suffering humanity and we propose to fight it out on this line, if it takes all summer. And be it understood, when we say we, we mean the whole created crowd of the male persuasion. What can be more sublime than the patience with which the male portion of humanity has borne the continued encroachments of the subtler sex? Patience is a good thing, but there is danger of too much of a good thing and the danger limit has already been reached. Hence, the declaration. Woman always has been dissatisfied with her garb and is forever wanting to swap. Evil grows little by little and innovations come almost imperceptibly. Woman demanded that she should have boots, and men, fool like, consented, thinking she would be satisfied, but she was not. This entering wedge was the beginning of all our woe. She then demanded hats and caps, a regular price albert, outaway or a claw-hammer and got them. Here we expected she would stop, but she didn't.
 Next they had collars, ties and cuffs, and, well—and shirts like men. Well we could put up with all this, but they went on. Rather than to have trouble we'd again yield if they would just carry their contumacious rigging themselves, when they are out. But they won't. We've got to carry their gloves, their handkerchiefs, their hairpins, their parasols and the great Kalin of Lookooohoschoo only knows what else, and still they are not satisfied, for here's the most unkindest cut of all. A Chicago girl was walking down the street with her beau and while she put on her gloves she actually made the wretched man that he was, carry her trail in his hand. If this isn't nipped in the bud it won't be three weeks until every woman in the land will be making her escort carry her dress.
 What! Carry a woman's dress and her in it? We'll never submit to it; no, never. We appeal to all those who wear pants (not to those who would like to wear them) to stand to their colors, for we're in the last ditch and something's got to be did.

Harve Williams and Miss Jennie Barras, Taylor Mines, were married last night. They are excellent young people and the REPUBLICAN wishes them all the happiness and success possible in this life.

Stevens Duncan.

Mr. J. B. Stevens and Miss Jennie Duncan, Echols, were married at the McHenry Presbyterian Church Wednesday evening at 8 o'clock in the presence of a host of admiring friends.
 The attendants were Mr. L. L. Stewart and Miss Maggie Duncan. The wedding march was rendered by Miss Ellen Duncan, and the ceremony was beautifully performed by Rev. M. P.
 Porter.

An elegant reception was given at the home of Mrs. Mary Duncan. Mr.
 Stevens is one of Ohio county's most promising and deserving young men, while his bride is a beautiful and accomplished young lady. May their lives be bright and happy.

ANDERSON'S BAZAAR Indicted.

The recent session of the Grand Jury was composed of the leading men in Ohio county, and they tried to do their duty, and returned quite a number of indictments against parties who have committed misdemeanors.

They visited Anderson's Bazaar, and they found a true bill against them for Selling the Cheapest line of Goods in Ohio county, leaving all competitors so far behind they thought it entirely wrong and must be DEALT with. So it now depends upon our friends to stand by us in the future as they have in the past and we will continue to sell the cheapest line in the county, regardless of their verdict. We buy our goods cheaper than any one in this section of the State, and can afford to sell them cheaper. Read the following and be convinced:
